Identity and Secession in the Caribbean: Tobago Versus Trinidad, 1889-1980
(Paperback)
by Learie B. Luke

The book chronicles the Tobago autonomy movement from the time of union with Trinidad in 1889 to 1980 when Tobago gained internal self-government. It argues that the complaints of Tobagonians were longstanding. The book puts the several calls for separation within the theoretical framework of identity. The unique contribution of Luke’s work is its “integrationist-separatist continuum” by which the author assesses the responses of British, colonial and local officials to the autonomy movement. This work adds to the historiography of the Caribbean and Trinidad and Tobago in particular, and is a useful case study of the issue of secession in the Caribbean.

Dr. Learie B. Luke (classes of ’88 and ’89) is an Assistant Professor of History and Interim Associate Vice President for Faculty and Programs at South Carolina State University where he has also served as Acting Chairman of the Department of Political Science and History and Interim Chairman of the Department of Social Sciences. At Caribbean Union College he served as Acting Chairman of the Department of History and Social Studies 1992-1993.

[IF YOU HAVE A PROJECT FROM WHICH YOU WOULD LIKE THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION TO BENEFIT, PLEASE CONTACT US. THANK YOU.]

BOOK ORDER FORM:

Identity and Secession in the Caribbean
(USC Dormitory Furnishings Project benefits from all net proceeds)

Please mail this form to USC Alumni Association in the enclosed self-addressed envelope, to reach us not later than April 10; OR please contact Dr. Luke directly at: luke@scsu.edu

Number of Books Requested: _____ @ $32.00 each = $ _________00*

Name(s) ____________________________________________
Address ____________________________________________
City __________________ State ________ ZIP Code _______
Telephone Number: (_____ ) ____________________________
E-mail _____________________________________________

*Checks should be made payable to, and delivered to: “Learie Luke”
Orders will be available for pick up on Saturday evening, April 19, 2008